KAUAI PAPER ON ILLEGAL
ISSUE OF LIQUOR LICENSES

The Garden Island Says:

One of the most flagrant examples of high handed procedure has just come to light in the case of a third class license just issued to a Waimea dealer. As our readers no doubt will remember, the Garden Island last week had a notice of a couple of suits in the Waimea Police Court for violation of fourth class liquor licenses. One of these was against the firm for S. Ozaki and was set for hearing on the 25th inst. In order to try to save himself the defendant telegraphed to his Honolulu house to have it apply to the Territorial Treasurer for another license, a third class one, to cover sales such as the one for which he was then being sued. So far there is nothing to object to. The man was in his right to apply for any kind of a license as long as he complied with the conditions prescribed by the law and put up the money. The latter part his representative in Honolulu no doubt attended to in a satisfactory manner but the other conditions could not be fulfilled by wireless.

Section 6 of the new liquor law contains among other things also the provision that no license shall be issued "to a person who has been convicted of violating any of the provisions of this act, or against whom a civil judgment has been rendered under this act." The applicant was convicted and sentenced for violation of the provisions of the act on the same day he sent in his application for the third class license. The section above quoted also contains the following paragraph:

"Nor shall a license be issued for any premises without the written consent of a majority of the property holders within a distance of 1000 feet measured in a straight line from the nearest point of the premises for which the license is asked to the nearest point of each of the surrounding properties, which consent shall be acknowledged as are deeds when entitled to record and filed with the application."

That this condition for the granting of the application was not complied with is evident from the fact that the application was made by wireless. Section eight of the same act provides that all applications for a third or fourth class license shall be accompanied by a bond signed by the applicant and by not less than two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Treasurer of the Territory, which bond shall go into effect upon the issuance of the license.

Section eleven reads that "No person shall be surety of any bond required by this act unless he is a citizen of the Territory of Hawaii and a resident and a freeholder in the district wherein his principal proposes to do business."

These two provisions had at the time not been complied with. All these omissions to neglect the provisions of the law have been committed by the applicant and he could therefore not expect anything but a refusal by the authorities to grant the license until he has conformed to all the conditions.

But what are we to think of the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii who does not know the laws he is supposed to uphold, or, if he does, ignores them altogether, and issues licenses right and left without taking any of the precautions, that the law specially stipulates that he, and nobody else, shall see to.

He has issued a fourth class license

A SILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from those peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago; the work of civilizing and redeeming it has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia and Scrofulous Affections, it gives quick and certain relief and cure. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint you. At all chemists.

to the applicant, who soon after applied to him for an additional license of the third class order. The applicant may have lived up to the first license or not. It was for the Treasurer to look into this matter before he issued the new one. But he did not ask a question. At least not at the proper source. Simply raked in the money and looked satisfied with himself.

He did not care a rap for the consent of the neighbors, provided for by the law; simply issued the license and said: "What are you going to do about it?"

He knew or ought to know that the application should be accompanied by a bond signed by two residents and freeholders of Waimea district, properly acknowledged. The bond wasn't there, but never mind.

That the Treasurer makes the license read from 1st July, 1905, to 30th June, 1906, tends, of course, to aggravate the matter when we consider that the license holder has been convicted and sentenced after the date on which the license went into effect.

This is not the only instance of the Treasurer acting in absolute opposition to the law. There was a case in Kapala some weeks ago when an application with seven of the neighboring property owners recommending the granting of the license, while eight property holders opposed it. It was issued in spite of the majority's opposition.

It seems that the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii is its most successful, if not law breaker, at least law evader. With such a record it looks like a farce to keep him in a responsible office.

MADAME MAILE WINS A POINT

In the case of Keolau Maile and others against Joseph O. Carter and others, a decision was filed yesterday. This is a suit by the widow and administratrix and the heirs of John W. Kaimanahoe, deceased, to annul a foreclosure under a mortgage held by Samuel C. Allen, deceased, and a sale to J. O. Carter, on August 9, 1902, for $9500, together with a deed made to Mr. Carter by Mr. Allen in his lifetime. The bill of complaint also seeks to enjoin any transfer of the property and the prosecution of an action in ejectment, brought by Mr. Carter to recover possession. When the suit was brought, a temporary restraining order was made by Judge Lindsay, and a motion to dissolve the order, together with full exceptions to the bill of complaint, were presented on behalf of Mr. Carter, of Allen & Robinson, and of the trustees under Mr. Allen's will, who are the respondents in the suit.

These matters, together with an application for a temporary injunction, were argued during a number of sessions of the court, extending over weeks, by Henry E. Highton, with whom C. W. Ashford is associated, for the complainants, and by E. B. McClanahan, of Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, for the respondents. The decision of Judge Lindsay sustains the bill of complaint in all particulars, overrules the exceptions and denies the motion to dissolve the restraining order. Pending the suit, therefore, the respondent, Carter, is enjoined from proceeding with his action of ejectment and all the respondents from setting up any claim of title or right of possession against the complainants.

In the suit Mr. Carter is only charged as a trustee for Allen & Robinson, but the bill is voluminous and precise in its allegations against the validity of the foreclosure proceedings and, among other things, attacks the constitutionality of the Hawaiian statute in relation to foreclosure under powers. This point, however, was not necessarily considered by Judge Lindsay in rendering his decision, which in numerous aspects, is of great importance.

Following the decision, Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, for defendants, filed a demurrer to the bill of complaint.

KAUAI'S CLAIM
BROUGHT TO TEST

A writ of mandamus has been served on James L. Holt, tax assessor of the first division, Island of Oahu, on the petition of the county of Kauai, the relators being John D. Willard, county attorney, and Albert S. Wilcox, William H. Rice and George N. Wilcox, taxpayers, of that county. J. K. Farley, tax assessor of the fourth division, Kauai and Niihau, is also cited in the writ, which is returnable before Circuit Judge Hardy of Kauai.

The purpose of the writ is to secure for the county of Kauai one-half of the income taxes of sugar-planting corporations whose property is situated in that county. By orders of the Treasurer of the Territory, backed with an opinion of the Attorney General, the Oahu assessor was required to assess such taxes against the corporations in Oahu, where their head offices are situated, and the Kauai assessor to refrain from assessing them in Kauai.

It is set forth in the petition that the law provides that the Treasurer of the Territory shall pay to each county 50 per cent. of the poll, school, property and income taxes collected therein, and that corporations doing business for profit shall pay an income tax of 2 per cent. on their net profit.

As returned to the Oahu assessor the taxes in question amount to $10,737.03, of which Kauai county claims $5500.

TYPHOID NERVES

EXTREME WEAKNESS OF NERVES
AN AFTER-EFFECT OF FEVER.

Mr. Worth Suffered Six Months of Misery, But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Him.

Typhoid fever is sometimes called nervous fever. During the course of the fever the nerves are always profoundly disturbed, and when it is over they are left so sensitive that the patient has to be guarded against all excitement. In the tonic treatment then demanded, regard must be paid not only to building up flesh but also to strengthening the nerves. A remedy that will do both, make sound flesh to repair waste and give new vigor to feeble nerves, is the most convenient and economical. Such a remedy is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

One proof of this is the experience of Mr. Charles Worth, of East Vassalboro, Maine. He says: "I had a severe attack of typhoid fever late in the fall which left me very weak and debilitated. My heart palpitated, my breathing became difficult after the least exertion and there was numbness in both hands. I suffered in that way for fully six months. As I did not grow out of it, did not in fact see the slightest improvement as time passed, I decided to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as I knew of some cures they had effected in cases like mine."

"Almost as soon as I began taking them I could see decided improvement and after keeping on with them for several weeks I was completely well. I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a most valuable remedy, and I am in the habit of recommending them to others afflicted as I was."

Thousands of testimonies from all parts of the world agree in supporting that of Mr. Worth. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the remedy to use when the blood is thin, as in anemia; or impure, as in rheumatism; or when the nerves are weak, as in neuralgia; or lifeless, as in partial paralysis; or when the body as a whole is ill-nourished, as in general debility. When the nerves ache and tremble it means that they are starving. The only way to feed them is through the blood, and the best food is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are absolutely guaranteed to be free from opiates or other harmful drugs. They are sold by all druggists, or may be obtained directly from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

COURT ITEMS.

Judge De Bolt yesterday morning called the odd-numbered cases on the civil calendar, hearings on preliminary issues and trials being set far into the term. The term may last for the rest of the year. Some cases were assigned to other judges and some transferred to the jury waived calendar.

A memorandum of points on demurrer has been filed by Atkinson, Judd & Mott-Smith for Sorenson and other defendants in the suit to obtain discovery and to enforce stockholders' liability brought by Charles R. Hemenway, trustee, against Honolulu Clay Co. et al. Judge Robinson dismissed defendant's appeal from the Honolulu District Court in the case of J. E. Fullerton vs. M. P. Dwyer. Judgment was for $400 and odd.

The Holt estate case was postponed one week by Judge Lindsay yesterday.

So Much Better

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so much better than any other remedy for Stomach, Liver and Kidney ills that we would urge every sick man and woman to stop experimenting at once and commence taking this sovereign remedy.
